

Dragonflies, a Habitat Friend

They aren't nicknamed "Mosquito Hawk" for nothing!

Dragonflies, which eat insects as adults, are a great control on the mosquito population.

A single dragonfly can eat hundreds of mosquitoes a day!

